

Public Library Locations, Dates, and Times

Kaimuki
Tuesday, April 4, 6:00 - 7:00
733-8422

Pearl City
Tuesday, April 4, 6:30 - 7:30
453-6566

Aina Haina
Saturday, April 15, 10:15 - 11:15
377-2456

Liliha
Wednesday, April 26, 3:30 - 4:30
587-7577

Kahuku
Tuesday, May 2, 6:30 - 7:30
293-8935

Kapolei
Tuesday, May 9, 6:30 - 7:30
693-7050

Manoa
Wednesday, May 10, 3:00 - 4:00
988-0459

Hawai'i State Library
Edna Allyn Room for Children
Saturday, May 20, 1:30 - 2:30
586-3500

Mililani
Wednesday, June 7, 6:30 - 7:30
627-7470

Please call the library 7 to 10 days in advance if a sign language interpreter or other special accommodation is needed.

Let's Talk About Karen Hesse

Come and celebrate the wonderful work of Newbery Award-winning author Karen Hesse. Todd Sammons or Mark Lawhorn will lead a discussion of Hesse's Out of the Dust, available at the library before the session. After reading the book, come to hear more about it and to discuss your ideas with others.

Mark Lawhorn teaches English at Kapiolani Community College.

Todd Sammons teaches English at UH-Manoa.

Everyone attending will receive a free copy of Out of the Dust (available beforehand), a free membership to Children's Literature Hawai'i ($30 value), and a free t-shirt from a previous Conference.

After attending the session, hear Karen Hesse speak at the

Some of her books
include:

Thirteenth Biennial Conference on Literature and Hawai'i's Children:

*Imagining Other Lives,
Other Times, Other Places*

*June 15-17, 2006
UH-Manoa Campus Center*

*Stowaway
Witness
Out of the Dust
The Music of Dolphins
Phoenix Rising
Letters from Rifka
Just Juice
The Cats in Krasinski Square*

This program is supported by the Hawai'i Council for the Humanities.

Sponsored by the Hawai'i State Library System and Children's Literature Hawai'i (CLH). For more information about CLH, please contact our office:

CLH@hawaii.edu

956-7559

Children's Literature Hawai'i
c/o UH Manoa Department of English
1733 Donaghho Road
Honolulu, HI 96822